

The Worlding Advantage: Our pedagogical approach

- ✓ Hands-on training sessions organized into progressive, two-day modules
- ✓ Question-based learning; numerous exercises accompanied by written and illustrated explanations
- ✓ Well-balanced rhythm means you learn and practice in short, targeted sequences
- ✓ Discover and explore your thinking style and how your strengths work in the creative intelligence process
- ✓ Complete independent work between modules to advance on personal and client-based projects under the close guidance of a Worlding trainer
- ✓ Individualized coaching, including access to our CPS hotline
- ✓ This programme was developed by Olwen Wolfe who helped adapt and introduce CPS to a European audience through workshops, conferences and her first book, J'innove comme on respire. With more than 25 years of consulting experience in a wide variety of small and large companies, Olwen uses CPS with her clients in France and all around the world.
